Workshop on Land and Housing Inequality and Redistribution

May 19th 2023 - 10:30 am | Conference room 1st floor | Maison des Sciences Humaines | Belval

Programme

10.30am	Introduction by Aline Muller, CEO, LISER
10.45-11.30am	Keynote lecture: Jacques-Francois Thisse (UCL) Land matters. But how and why?
11.30-11.45	Break
11.45-12.15am	Sonia Schifano (U. Bocconi, Italy), Antoine Paccoud (LISER) The distribution of land in Luxembourg (1766–1872): Family-level wealth persistence in the midst of institutional change
12.15am-12.45am	Laure Casanova Enault, Guilhem Boulay, Rémi Lei and Antoine Peris (U. Avignon, UMR Cnrs Espace), Martin Bocquet (Cerema) Structure and concentration of residential property ownership in France
12.45-2.00pm	Lunch break in the room
2.00-2.30pm	Sander Ramboer and Teemu Lyytikäinen (VATT Institute for Economic Research, Finland) The impact of mortgage regulation on homeownership and household leverage
2.30-3.00pm	Gerard Domènech Arumí (ULB) Housing inequality and how fiscal policy shapes it: Evidence from Belgian real estate
3.00-3.15	Break
3.15pm-4.00pm	Keynote lecture: Louis Chauvel (U. Lux)
4.00pm-5.00pm	Panel : Tax policies for land and properties: international perspectives Thomas Davidoff (UBC, Vancouver) : Policy Forum: Vancouver's Property Taxes in Perspective Guillaume Chapelle (UCergy and LIEPP): How to tax public and private land? Antoine Paccoud (LISER): Policy proposals in the context of concentrated land ownership Etienne Wasmer (NYUAD): Tax shields and property taxes: the case of France

INFO
Organizers and scientific committee: Guillaume Chapelle, Antoine Paccoud, Etienne Wasmer
How to go to LISER: https://www.liser.lu/?type=module&id=46